This branch has not been researched for biographical information but I expect to do so eventually.

John Michael immigrated about 1852 and lived in Sandusky near relatives. He was a "house" carpenter which I take to mean he built houses or finished interiors of homes.

On March 2, 1860 Michael bought Lot #50 on Railroad Street in Sandusky,[5] from his cousins George and Caroline Walter. He paid $300 for the property.

During the Civil War he served as a Sergeant in the Jäeger-companie which went to Camp Taylor near Cleveland on April 25, 1861. He enlisted as a 100-day soldier. John also participated to some degree in Sandusky politics. He was elected or appointed as the fourth ward assessor in 1882 but may only have served one year.

The poison, according to reports, was a concoction used for spraying trees and shrubbery. 276

Dr. Paul N. Squire, coroner, was out of the city Friday and City and County Health Director F. M. Houghtaling, acting coroner, held that action on his part was unnecessary inasmuch as Dr. S. Gorsuch, of Castalia, was present when Mrs. Yantz passed away.

Mrs. Yantz was a member of Grace Lutheran church, Castalia, and of its Women's Missionary Society. Fri. Aug. 19-1932

The remains were brought to the Charles J. Andres Sons Funeral Home and prepared for burial. Saturday forenoon they will be returned to the residence where friends may call.

The funeral will be held Monday at 1 p. m. from the house and at 2 p. m., from Grace Lutheran church, Castalia, with the pastor, Rev. Jennings, officiating.

Interment in the family lot in Castalia cemetery.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon for Mrs. Minnie Mix Yantz, wife of Herman A. Yantz, at the family residence on the Billings-Mason-rd near Castalia, where she died last Friday. IM'S SHOOTING

Well Known Secretary of Sandusky Eagles Had Been in Poor Health Since Injured in Auto Accident Several Months Ago; Popular in Fraternal Circles All Over Ohio.

Joseph A. "Sep" Diebold, secretary of the local aerie of Eagles, and one of the city's best known men, ended his life by shooting at his home, 730 E. Park-st, shortly after 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. Coroner F. J. Leblicq conducted an investigation of the affair and later rendered a verdict of suicide.

Diebold was in bed at the time of the shooting and members of his family heard the shot fired. A 38 calibre revolver was found near his body and the bullet had entered his head and pierced the brain. Drs. C. R. Knoble and F. C. Burket were called, but Diebold died a short time after their arrival.

Members of his family and close friends and busines associates are unable to assign any motive for his act other than that he was despondent over ill health, following an auto accident several months ago. He had been about as usual on Tuesday and was at his office at the Eagles club.

Officers and members of the Eagles lodge which Diebold served as secretary since 1915 expressed deep regret over his death, lauding his service and good-fellowship. In point of service he was one of the oldest secretaries of the order. He was active in Eagle work here for many years and tribute to his efforts in accomplishing Eagle objectives and in enlarging the membership of the lodge here was paid. The local aerie No. 444 has grown considerably while Diebold was secretary.

Lodge officials, those closest to him, while shocked, agreed that there could be no explanation of the suicide other than failing health. They were fully confident, they said, that lodge accounts were correct, and all funds intact, there being absolutely no cause for worry on Diebold's part in this connection.

Worthy President E. J. Eckman, summoned officers of the order to meet Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock at the club rooms to take action upon the lodge's bereavement. Due to his prominence in the order it is expected that many out-of-town lodges will participate in any ceremonies that may be held.

Diebold has been a life-long resident of this city and was well and favorably known. He was connected with the American Express Co., here, for many years and for a number of years past had been devoting all of his time to his secretaryship of the Eagles lodge. He was aged 46 years.

Some time ago he suffered an injury to his head which at times caused him trouble. Persons who talked with him Tuesday said that he appeared in good health although very nervous. He said nothing to members of his family Tuesday evening when he returned home concerning his health. Recently he was away from the city for a time and it was then thought that his health was impaired.

He is survived by his widow, one son, Paul Diebold; three sisters, Mrs. Adolph Horn, Mrs. Charles Rohrbacher and Mrs. James Kreimes, all of this city; two brothers, William Diebold of this city and John Diebold of Cleveland, and many other relatives and friends.

I found Allie's marriage to Owens. But she was a Halford at that time.

OWENS, HENRY E 36 HALFORD, ALLIE 22 5 AUG 1906 PURCELL J©376

This is what I found on the 1900 census of McClain County. We have it in alphabetical order so I don't know who she is living with.

99©166 HALFORD, ALLIE NIC W F JUL 1884 15 born IT father born AL???

It looks to me as if she is listed as a niece.

I am going to go back and look at the 1910 census for I think Allie and her

Owens family are enumerated next to the Pughs.

I have an Allie Pugh b. ca 1884 married to Henry Owens. However, this is not fully documented so I am not positive this is the 7th. child.

John Pugh (b. 1885) mar. Elsie ca 1910 and Robert M. Pugh mar. Gertrude ca 1912. Robert M. d. 5 August 1945 in McClain Co. OK

I haven't had much luck finding marriage records out there.

Mason's name has been found spelled many different ways but the most common are Mace and Mason.

Before finding this branch of the family in OK, I had never research "in the west" so researching in areas before statehood is a new experience for me.

Thanks Again. Helen

From CLEVELAND COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, Inc.

Helen,

I was able to find what is probably Mason Pugh in a list of some Purcell funeral home records printed in the McClain County Cemetery book which the McClain County Historical and Genealoy Society did some years ago.

Mase/Maso Pugh Death 14 Nov 1911 Buried Lexington

Our publication chairman used the name Mose Pugh when she included the information in our Lexington Cemetery book.

Apparently Mason does not have a stone as he was not included in a listing of stones done by one of our members in 1992 nor did our most recent survey locate one. The most recent survey also included working with the sexton's records.

There is a stone for Frances J. Pugh 1856 - 1934. I assume this is the wife Frances you mentioned.

If you have a birth date for Mason or more complete dates for Frances, we would like to include them in a future update to our cemetery book.

COMPLETION OF TRACK LAYING

By April 8, track had been laid as far north as Pauls Valley and as far south as Verbeck (now Moore). That same day C.B. Jones of the livestock department of Santa Fe announced that 75,000 head of western and coastal cattle would be moved to the ranges in Indian Territory as soon as the grass was well up, and that after May 1 shipments would be made all the way to the Kansas City market. The completion of the line across Indian Territory spelled early doom to the nearby cattle trails.

On Sunday, April 24, after considerable delay by the southbound crew at the bridge across the Canadian, the two lines were five and a half miles apart. The Gulf division completed its 106.9 miles at 11:20 a.m. the following Tuesday (April 26, 1887). The Southern Kansas division laid 154.48 miles of track, driving the last spike at 5:05 p.m. the same day at a place called Purcell, a name that had been announced April 9. It was named for a prominent stockholder and member of the board of directors of the parent company, E.B. Purcell of Manhattan, Kansas.

The first Santa Fe passenger train moved north across the future State of Oklahoma on June 13, 1887, arriving at Purcell on time at 12:30 p.m. The first southbound passenger train was delayed due to floods. It arrived some six hours late at 9:25 p.m.

ESTABLISHMENT OF THE TOWNSITE (reportedly)

Bob Love, as previously stated, an intermarried Chickasaw citizen, exercised his family tribal rights and selected the land adjoining Purcell Station for their claim. When the grade work for the railway lines was completed, he proposed to (Edward) Johnson that they go into the townsite business. They hired the surveyor who had just completed the survey for the railroad to lay off the principal streets.

Love borrowed a walking plow from Mace Pugh. They hitched up Johnson's team to his chuck wagon, loaded up the plow and headed for the site. Johnson drove the team, while Love manipulated the turning plow. They marked off two streets they called Main Street and Chickasaw Avenue. (Canadian Ave.? ed.) This was April 5. Johnson claimed four lots and, later, when the town grew, rented them for a lumber yard.

The townsite boomed. As in all pioneer settlements, the desire for what appeared to offer a better life attracted all types of people. Many came from other points in the Chickasaw Nation, and several from Texas and other southern states. A few northerners, mostly connected with the railroad, came, too. Several Boomers lived at Purcell during part or all of the two-year period awaiting the opening of the Unassigned Lands.

In anticipation that the railroad would be completed sooner, the Post Office Department appointed John M. Wantland, Postmaster, effective April 21, 1887. There were no rails within five miles of Purcell at that time. Records do not disclose whether Wantland accepted outgoing mail during those first five days. Shortly after the post office was established, he directed his store clerk, T.E. Smiley, to handle the postal work. Still later, he employed Bessie Snow, who came to Purcell from Mineral Wells, Tex. Miss Snow married Michael McGinley who became Norman's first grocer.

The first merchants to engage in business in Purcell were the Wantlands who erected a store building at the corner of Main Street and Canadian Avenue. R.H. Blackwell built the first residence, but H.A. Davidson has been credited with the construction of the first frame house in Purcell. He came from Johnsonville in April 1887.

A.P. Barnes built a sixteen by thirty foot hotel that stood on the future site of Hotel Love. (See Prigmore family heritage. ed.) The first drug store was built by A.R. Farmer and H.B. Campbell where Campbell Brothers store later stood. William Partridge and son were the first hardware merchants.

A.H. Donahue opened the first saddle and harness shop. Al Raney and T.R. Houghton were pioneer dealers in furniture. Drs. Wynne and J.S. Speed were early additions among the business and professional men.

Father Roqua, a French Jesuit priest, established the first religious society and school. This was done in a small house on Second and Madison Street. W.H. Blackwell started the first livery stable and later became a businessman in Norman. Walter Simpson was the first blacksmith. J.H. Wallenburg was the first city drayman, and Cyrus Leeper put in the first stock of lumber for Naples-Platter of Gainesville, Tex. B.D.Davidson was the first attorney to hang out his shingle. He assisted in a subsequent survey of the townsite. J.W. Hocker was a pioneer merchant and the first U.S. Commissioner.

The PURCELL REGISTER was the first newspaper and is the oldest continuously operated business in town, except for the Santa Fe. The paper was established November 23, 1887 by Edward P. Ingle.

George R. Beeler and his brother opened a bank in the first brick building on April 18, 1889. The first stone building was occupied by Quigg and Beringer, hardware merchants.

Purcell, for the first two years after it came into being, was the nearest railroad trading point for a wide area, including the Pottawatomie country to the east and northeast. A stage line was established in early 1888 between Purcell and Shawneetown which was located about half-way between present Shawnee and Tecumseh. It had existed as the major trading post in the Shawnee-Pottawatomie country since the mid 1870's. (See Clardy family heritage. ed.)

The stage trip took most of a day each way with the schedule timed to connect main passenger trains at Purcell. Lunch was served at the Griffenstein Ranch at Burnett, a few miles west of today's Macomb. The line also served Lexington after that town came into being.

THE 1887-1889 PERIOD

During a period of several years prior to the Run of 1889, the Boomers continually harassed the army who had the responsibility for preventing settlement in the Oklahoma country across the river from Purcell. For the two-year period of Purcell's existence prior to the Run, the Army was especially edgy about attempts being made for settlement. Cattlemen and passengers on trains and stages were

Our Southern District, whose area roughly was composed of the Chickasaw Nation, had federal court sites legislated at Purcell, Pauls Valley, Ardmore, Ryan and Chickasha. First court was held in the completed Purcell Federal Courthouse on November 17, 1895. Ironically, this was the same night that a fire completely destroyed the mainly wooden downtown business district. The Courthouse, across Canadian Ave. to the east and built of sandstone, was not damaged. First judge of the district was the Honorable C.B. "Buck" Kilgore, congressman from Texas, who with his marshall, A.P.Stowe of Ardmore and District Attorney A.C. Cruce of Ardmore served as the first officials. Judge Hosea Townsend served the 10 years preceding statehood.

First Grand Jury Session began Monday, April 27, 1896 and was composed of J.Taylor Bradley, S.O.Williams, James Crawford, W.H. Johnson, M. Lowrimore, J.F.Myers, W.T.Mantooth, David Mays, C.C. Jones, T.C. Jennings, W.H. Walker, J.P.Cushman, John A. Coleman and L.A.Swinney.

First McClain County officials that took office in 1907 were: T.C.Whitson - Representative; J.C.Siler - District Clerk; E.E.Glasco - Judge; Ben Franklin - Attorney; C.W.Hoggard - County Clerk; George H. White - Sheriff; J.B.Thurston - Treasurer; C.M.McClain - Register of Deeds; A.J.French - Superintendent of Public Instruction; L.M.Kemp - Surveyor; W.T.Garrett - Weigher; Nat Henderson - Coroner; with the three county commissioners being Lafayette Baird of the Byars area, F.W.Goldsby of Goldsby area and J.W.Fletcher of Purcell.

In 1927 and 1928 the present McClain County courthouse at 2nd and Washington was erected by the Cowen Brothers Construction Company. The architectural firm of Hawk and Parr produced the structural design. Consisting of four stories with basement storage space, the top floor contains the jail with offices and court rooms on the other three. Presently a commission has been formed to study a plan to enlarge the building and replace antiquated facilities, by constructing separate jail facilities and adding an elevator.

KEYS TO INDIAN TERRITORY RECORDS

Research Aid by Joyce Rex

For the novice, Indian Territory records seem hard to understand, why there are some and why there aren't! The thing to keep in mind is that BEFORE Nov. 16, 1907 all records in Oklahoma were FEDERAL records, and as such, do not follow normal county and state record systems of today! While some marriages were recorded in missionary records, tribal records did not include the white man, and until the judicial systems were set up in 1889, there just weren't any places to have or keep records. Therefore, many white people went across the state lines into Kansas, Arkansas and Texas to be married. (It also was cheaper!) Border town records offer a wealth of Oklahoma marriages. End of Railroad towns are also an excellent place to research! The bride would come by train to meet her groom, get married, and travel on to their new home by wagon or horseback. The circuit riding preacher also carried (and lost) many of the records back to his original home.

The Indian Territory judicial system was first set up in Muskogee according to INDIAN AFFAIRS - Laws and Treaties, Vol 1 by Charles Kappler GPO 1904. From March 1, 1889 until it was expanded May 2, 1890 to a 3 district system with courts in Ardmore, McAlester and Muskogee, few records were kept. However in 1890 with laws and jurisdiction over civil and criminal cases beginning, records began to be kept.

Superceding the previous system and after an intensive lobbying effort against "foreign" courts in Fort Smith, Ark and Paris, Tex, the 1895 US federal legislature listed the three areas (a 4th Western District was added in 1902): (See Courthouses of McClain Co.)

NORTHERN - All Creek, Seminole and Cherokee Nations, the country occupied by the Quapah Indian Agency and the townsite of the Miami Townsite Co. Places of holding court were at Vinita, Miami, Tahlaquah and Muskogee. (Today records can be found for 1890-1907 at Muskogee and Vinita Court Houses. Oklahoma Genealogical Society Special Publication #6 gives indexed marriages in the Northern or First District at Muskogee from 5 July 1890-19 Sept 1894. This book also contains abstracts of SOME earlier marriages and divorces in Creek National Records from 1879-1898 and Cherokee National Records from 1869-1895 including divorces through 1895.)

CENTRAL - All Choctaw Nation with court sites at South McAlester, Atoka, Antlers and Cameron (later moved to Poteau). In 1902 a portion of eastern Chickasaw/Southern District was added to Central District with court site being Durant. Present sites of records are county courthouses at McAlester, Atoka, Durant, Wilburton and Poteau.

SOUTHERN - Consisted of Chickasaw Nation (with above exception after 1902) with court sites at Purcell, Pauls Valley, Ryan, Ardmore and Chickasha. These district courts had authority on all matters, civil and criminal. A CENTRAL REPOSITORY IN THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT today has all Southern District records at the Carter Co. Courthouse in Ardmore. These records are separate from the Carter Co. records! (A fire in 1895 destroyed all earlier records. Another fire in Paris, Texas destroyed early federal records there, so except for a few newspaper accounts, there are very few accounts of early 1890 judicial activity and legal documents available.)

The records from April 1895 to statehood, entitled under various names, can be found in Ardmore today. They were filmed by the Utah Genealogical Society in 1982 and erroneously entitled "Marriage Records of Pickens Co. I.T. 1895-1907" in their indexes. While they DO CONTAIN Pickens Co. marriages, the microfilmed photo of the book cover definitely states that they are SOUTHERN DISTRICT records and ALSO contain Old Pontotoc, Tishomingo and Panola's Counties of Chickasaw Nation. These rolls of microfilm are numbered LDS #1313668 through 1313674. Starting with #1313675, the rolls are Carter Co. records only EXCEPT for roll #1313691 which includes some NATURALIZATION records for the time period Dec. 11, 1897 - June 8, 1905. The Southern Oklahoma Genealogical Society of Ardmore which meets at the public library there, plans to abstract and index these records.

While researching Oklahoma records, keep in mind that there is no ONE specific rule that can be followed in EVERY area of the state for old records. Many county courthouses have what actually are federal records, especially marriages etc. while federal records can be found in repositories from Oklahoma Historical Society at Oklahoma City to Fort Worth Federal Archives or the Indian Archives at Muskogee, McAlester and Tishomingo. In many cases, the only record may be an item in a local newspaper, of which many are on microfilm at the Oklahoma Historical Society. (A WPA index through the 1930's includes basically important and/or prominent people, so many normal obits, marriages, etc. are not included. However, an Oklahoma Genealogical Society/Oklahoma Historical Society project to index all vital statistics began in 1985. This is a long project with the many cabinets of newspaper microfilms available, so will probably not be completed in the near future. Interlibrary loan system is not used at the OHS Library, but rolls of microfilm may be purchased at a nominal cost. In the case of a weekly newspaper, several years may be covered on each roll.)

VITAL STATISTICS RECORDS

Family historians and others searching for the vital statistic records of the area are reminded that it was only at statehood that it became mandatory to record births and deaths. Even then it was not stringently followed for many years - after all, what could be done to a person for not recording the facts?

Newspapers, church and family records show some births and deaths in addition to the cemetery tombstones which are the most accessible source of informatin - providing there WERE tombstones. McClain County OK Death Records 1882-1984 (available through the McClain Co. Historical and Genealogical Society) lists nearly 14,000 cemetery, obituary, funeral home and private records of the area.

Officially recorded births and deaths may be obtained through the state Department of Public Health, PO Box 53551, Oklahoma City, OK 73152, giving the name, estimated date and county of birth/death at a cost of $5.00 per record requested.

Furniture and general stores sold coffins. Houghton and Upps, Bonneau Brothers, Rackley's and R.Y. Mangum were all listed as undertakers or selling funeral supplies in early obituaries of Purcell. Most of Rackley's records survive and are listed in the above book. Both Bonneau Brothers in Purcell and Matheny's in Blanchard (sold to Eisenhours) took their records with them after the change of ownership. Since Bonneau's were an early Catholic family, and the early Catholic church records have not been released, the only available place to locate them are either in the Purcell Hillside or Lexington's St. John Catholic Cemetery (only a selected few were listed from the latter in the book).

It is believed that an early Purcell cemetery was located in the area of 6th and Washington in the very early days. This deduction is based on several facts: first, we know that there was one as early as 1890 since newspapers of that time record a local preacher attempting to have a fence built around it to keep the animals out! Second, in 1929 while excavating near Simpson School (6th and Washington) for gas/ heating lines, ditch diggers found bones and remains of several coffins with brass hinges and scroll design with the words "At Rest" crudely engraved. (The Simpson School was built in 1908 replacing the older North Ward School located on the southern side of the property donated by the Jonathon Hazel family.)

The Love Family presented the present day Hillside Cemetery land to the city. Of course since the City was not officially incorporated until 1898, burying might have been done earlier. However, the Purcell Register of both Feb. 10, 1899 and May 12, 1899 state that "bodies were moved to the new cemetery". Also, that was considered "way out in the country" then!

Another source whose ancestor had been a local preacher confirmed the 6th and Washington site and stated that before the Hawthorne/South Ward School was built, there also had been burying done in THAT vicinity! We have found funeral home burials at the County Farm south of town (under the Lake) and at the County Home in Purcell, but no positive proof or records have been located. Newspapers of the day assumed that their readers knew where the cemeteries were located!

On a county level, many early Cole residents, in addition to being buried in the Dibble and Washington cemeteries, were also buried in Pauls Valley. Look for early Newcastle residents buried (before the establishment of Blanchard) in Alex, Bradley, Ireton, Tuttle and Norman. Newcastle's Clopton Cemetery listed in the book was basically a family cemetery.

Musgrove Cemetery was probably an early name for the Washington Cemetery. We can find obits and funeral home records listing burials there but these persons are presently situated in Washington Cemetery of today. We can find no mention of moving this cemetery. There also was an early day Musgrove School. There was a black cemetery in this area whose existing stones have been listed. However, there are probably many unmarked ones..

Rosedale, Wayne, Byars, Johnsonville, Okra, Coulson, and Chism residents may be buried in one of many cemeteries of that very early populous area. Because of the rich farming lands and the communities at the River Crossings, this was the first part of the county to be settled. The store at Johnsonville Crossing was listed by the early 1870's and was the first post office in the entire area. Since the cemeteries were all so close together, it often became a matter of choice of the burial place. So check them all before giving up.

NEWSPAPERS OF McCLAIN COUNTY

There's an old saying, author unknown, that newspapers reflect the history of an area - from the editor's viewpoint! If so, there are many viewpoints over the years to check McClain County history. Microfilmed copies of most are available through the Oklahoma Historical Society Newspaper collection. While the collection does have gaps, an amazing amount of time is covered.

Although today there are only papers published in Purcell and the Blanchard/Newcastle areas, there have been many more published in the time our county has been in existence. Although the publication time of many were not lengthy, their fervor and competition was fierce with differing of national and local politics usually being the main variance. Some papers extolled national news and activities, while many confined themselves to state and local items. All of the early ones seemed to include a serial or romantic type story - similar to our cliff hanger TV situations or possibly due to the lack of books and libraries. Advertisements included testimonials for patent medicines in addition to business cards of local professional people. You were as apt to read ads for a doctor, dentist or lawyer as you were hotels, cafes, general merchandise stores, livery stables or local contractors.

Available at OHS are PURCELL REGISTER (1887 to the present) and the (Purcell) TERRITORIAL TOPIC (1889-1894). Also published were the ENQUIRER (1895-6), the CALL (1908-9), the TRIBUNE (1903-6), the RECORD (ca 1918) the DAILY REPUBLIC (1906-1916) and the DAILY EVENING RECORD (1917).

Papers were also published in Byars with copies of the BYARS BANNER being available from 1904-1907. There was also the BYARS ADVERTISER (1911-14), the BOOSTER (Oct.-Nov. 1910) and the ENTERPRISE (1914) while in Wayne, the WAYNE GAZETTE (1909-1910) and the WAYNE IGNITOR (1911) existed. A ROSEDALE NEWS was also published tho few copies are available today.

The northern part of the county was represented by the WASHINGTON PRESS (1910), PROGRESS (1914) and the DEMOCRAT (1909-13) while in Blanchard, the McCLAIN COUNTY NEWS was published in 1913-16 and the BLANCHARD RECORD in 1912 in addition to the BLANCHARD NEWS.

Oklahoma Imprints, A History of Printing in Oklahoma 1835-1907 by Foreman, in addition lists PURCELL CITIZEN edited by T.D. Jolly in 1900, PURCELL COMMERCIAL REPORT started in 1891 by I.Spitzer with Turk & Bros. as publisher, PURCELL EVENING REVIEW and PURCELL TERRITORIAL REVIEW in 1898 and the PURCELL FRATERNAL RECORD (KofP and IOOF) 1893 with Case and Walker as publishers. Very few of these latter are available today.

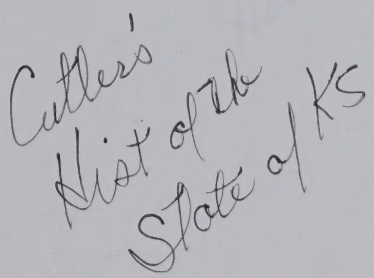
FALL RIVER.

Fall River is located in the extreme southwest of the county four miles west of the line between Greenwood and Wilson Counties, and a half-mile north of the south line of Greenwood County. It was laid out late in the fall of 1879 by the Fall River Town Company, and covers space of a little more than 100 acres, although the lands of the Town Company were more than double that amount and embraced eighty acres in Elk County. Although but three years old, the town is in a way much older. Its first citizens and many of its buildings being removed from Charleston, one of the oldest towns of the county, and located two and one-half miles northward of the present town.

The first building erected on the town site is the residence of J. M. Edmiston, and was built by Andrew Bergstrom in October, 1879. This was soon followed by the hardware store of Romig Brothers and the Fall River House, built by George Bulkley, Secretary of the Town Company, and one of the chief promoters of the town. About this time a part of Beard's Block, the post office building and the residence of Albert Allen were removed from Charleston to Fall River. The same fall, W. D. Marr built a house and blacksmith shop, and a Mr. Reddington put up the old livery stable. In February, 1880, the firm of Ritz & Putnam opened the first general store. The same month, the post office was opened, with George Bulkley, the present incumbent, as Postmaster.. The first physician in the new town was J. J. Lemon who was soon followed by B. F. Pugh and Andrew Edmiston. A. M. Hunter, who came in 1881, is the sole representative of the legal profession. The St. Louis & San Francisco Railway ran their first train to Fredonia on the evening of Saturday, December 13, 1879, an the next day opened the depot and telegraph office.

The first birth in the county, of which any record is to be found, is that of Mollie Key, born to Greenberry and Polly Key in March, 1855. The first marriage solemnized was in Nemaha Township, by Rev. Thomas Newton, on the 12th of November, 1854, the contacting parties being Charles Leachman and Mrs. Caroline Davenport, a widower and widow, who had emigrated from Iowa, to which State they shortly after returned. The first death is a question of some little doubt. In September, 1854, Jacob B. Newton, son of Rev. Thomas Newton, died of typhoid fever, the record further saying the first husband of Mrs. Davenport died in Nemaha County and was buried on the Henri Korber place, his coffin being made by Christian Bobst and Robert Turner, out of his wagon box. As Mrs. Davenport was married a second time, on November 12, 1854, and without evidence to the contrary, it must be supposed that a decent interval elapsed between the funeral and the wedding; the question of priority as regards Mr. Davenport or J. B. Newton remains a question. The first church was Congregational organization effected at Albany, in Rock Creek Township, in 1857. There were twelve charter members, of whom Hon. George Graham, now deceased, was the leading spirit. The first church edifice erected was that of the Catholics, built at Wildcat, in 1859, and, with additions, still in use. The first school taught in the county was in 1856, in Granada Township, a small building for school purposes being erected during the same year. Various efforts in the cause of education were made a t an early date, of which, unfortunately, but few records can be found. A school building was erected at America City, in Red Vermillion Township in, 1857; 1858 saw the establishment of the first school in Seneca, taught by Addie Smith; and in 1859 witnessed the first school in Central City, under the charge of Mahlon Pugh.



upland soil can be made remunerative. He is a member of Fall River Post, Grand Army of the Republic.

B. F. PUGH, M. D., was born in Grant County, Ind., in 1842, and in due time attended the Cincinnati Medical College, graduating from that institution in 1867, with the degree of M. D. He at once commenced the practice of his profession in his native county, and remained there until the summer of 1873, when he removed to Charleston, this county, and was one of those who move from there to Fall River upon the building of the latter. April 12, 1864, Dr. Pugh was married to Miss E. N. Taughinbough; but one child is now left them, viz., Lydia E., who was born October 21, 1866. The Doctor resides on Merenants avenue, and has established a lucrative and large practice, which is constantly increasing. He is the examining physician of the F. & M. B. Assurance Company, and a member of the Masonic fraternity.

JAMES L. NOAKES, farmer, Section 15, P. O. Fall River, was born in 1828, in Crawford County, Ark., and moved to Missouri with his parents in 1834, locating in Newton County, and was engaged in farming until June 27, 1861, when he enlisted in Company A, Twenty-seventh Regiment Missouri Cavalry, and served until mustered out in 1862, by order of Gen. Halleck. He afterwards served a year in the Missouri State Militia. Came to Kansas in 1871, locating on Section 15, his present residence. Of his 160 acres, one-half is under cultivation; and he raises corn, castor beans, and flax. He has about forty head of cattle, and a good orchard. Mr. Noakes has proven indisputably that the cultivation of the caster upon upland soil can be made remunerative. He is a member of Fall River Post, Grand Army of the Republic.

Think I solved the mystery of Mason Pugh. I did try all spellings to include Mace, Pew, etc. It brought up Pugh as well as Pew. But I really think the answer is that there was no 1880 Oklahoma census - at least not printed - according to 8th Edition Handybook for Genealogists. Besides I could not find a disc for Oklahoma.

Did find John Needler and made copy of census for you.
(watch out your getting near my territory in Indiana)
He is in Hartford, Blackford Co., IN
John Needler, 46, born OH, butcher
Eliza E., wife, 40, born IN Viola J., dau, 18, born IN
L. Alonzo, son, 14, born IN
Charlie J., son, 3, born IN

Also found Branson, didn't you have someone else in Greenwood Co., KS?
He lives Salt Springs, Greenwood Co., KS
Bennson F. Pugh, 38, born IN, physician
Emma, wife, 30, born IN Lydia E., dau, 13, born IN
O. P. Smith, boarder, 37, born Ohio, physician, he is widowed

My computer is driving me nuts. Gateway sent me a 15 page answer to my problem using Go-Back which I don't have, etc. Nuts. Got rid of my weather bug and my web shots, I have cleaned everything, I have no errors on my c: drive. From just reading over their explanation think I am missing Config.sys Also, does not always shut down properly. Still cannot defrag and I do not have any screen savers or wallpaper running. Curses

Susan called a while ago. They had been wanting to get another dog so they got one today. Gary wanted a blonde, male, labrador. Sue said that was ok but she wanted to name it. So, she named it before they got it - Indiana (you know, Indiana Jones!). Isn't that cute. But, ironically, they ended up driving to Indiana to get it. Am sure we will call it Indy.

We finally put the cleaner on our porch today. It has to dry for a couple of days before we can put the sealer on. I was sure the snow was going to fly before it got done (of course, it's not done yet)!

October - no way!

79-Year-Old M'Gregor Man Plays His Cornet Nightly in Museum

Selection, However, Depends on His Mood at Time

McGregor, Ia.— Special: Every evening now Dr. John Walter, 79, plays his concert for a while, a thing he has been doing with few exceptions ever since he was 12 years old.

It may be a classical piece, it may be a song or waltz of 50 years ago—or it might be a modern selection—all depending on his mood.

Music Museum

He does his practicing in a room in his home which he has turned into a music museum. A large cabinet holds a library of band, orchestra, trio, duet, and solo music that has been accumulated over a period of nearly 70 years and at a cost of several thousand dollars. There are first editions of Sousa's marches and rare compositions, once popular but now practically unknown and out of print. Numerous old band instruments are on display—one an 80-year-old shoulder cornet with rotary valves. A table is covered with traps devised and used in a day when few bands in the Middle West had them. The collection includes Swiss bells, anvil, steamboat whistle, and a variety of bird songs. The museum walls are decorated with 50-year-old pictures of the "Walter Family Band," posters of "Al G. Field's Gold Band," celebrated band of the 90's, with Dr. Walter's brother, Will, wielding the baton. There are pictures also of the Ringling Brothers at various stages of their rise to circus fame.

Dr. Walter's house stands where August Ringling, father of the circus men, had a harness shop in the 70's. Across the street in buildings long since torn down, the Walters and Ringlings lived neighbors and the children of the two families played together. Al Ringling and John were pals. During the Summers they used to work in a garden together. Al had an old white horse which was supposed to be a help in the garden, but more often than not Al was practicing fancy bareback riding while John did the hoeing.

Declined Offer

When the Ringlings first took to the road with a small wagon show, they had the "Walter Family Band" play for them at Prairie du Chien and other Wisconsin and Iowa towns. The band made a hit and the families were such good friends that Al Ringling asked Peter Walter, John's father, to take a partnership in the circus. But Father Walter decided his McGregor business held out much better promise for the future and declined with thanks.

Dr. Walter has practiced dentistry in McGregor for 59 years and still goes to his office daily. He was the town's mayor 20 years, has been president of the Iowa Municipalities' League and president of the Northeastern Iowa Dental Association, but it is of the "Walter Family Band" that he loves best to talk as he nears his 80th birthday.

A member of the once famous "Walter Family Band," Dr. John Walter, former McGregor mayor, is shown above as he appears today playing his cornet, a practice he has followed nightly with few exceptions since he was 12 years old. Now 79 years old, Dr. Walter lives in a house where formerly stood the harness shop operated by August Ringling, father of the circus men.

His father in early days had a furniture factory and paint shop in McGregor—the bedstead that hung out in front for a sign was a landmark. The family lived over the factory. Peter Walter, as soon as his five sons and daughters were old enough, taught each of them to play a band instrument. John, being the oldest, was the first pupil.

When he was 14, he made his first appearance in public, playing a cornet in the McGregor Band as it marched up Main Street in a Fourth of July celebration. Absorbed in his playing and with eyes glued to his music, the boy heard with pride the sidewalk crowds cheering. Then he looked up and saw he had fallen far behind the band and they were cheering for that and not as a tribute to his playing.

Two years later, in 1877, when the youngest daughter, Hannah, was seven, the "Walter Family Band" emerged full-fledged. In the organization were Father Walter, John, Emma, Anna, Will, and Hannah. They had practiced every evening except Sundays for years, and were to continue doing so for 25 years longer.

The band was a sensation at the start, largely because of the three girls. Not only did they play horns—men's instruments — but marched in parades—both unheard of things for the female sex to do in those days. At the Minnesota State Fair in the early 80s, the curious crowds pressed around them so, they had to have police protection. Little Hannah playing a base horn, was the storm center of attention, Dr. Walter recalls.

For a number of years the band played on the Diamond Jo packets on the Mississippi River for the Summer tourist trade. It was an innovation in steamboating on the river and widely advertised. The program was to play at every landing and to blare forth loudly whenever they passed a packet of rival companies that didn't have bands. A band concert was given in the salon in the evening, or they sometimes played for dancing. "But there wasn't much dancing on the old packets," says Dr. Walter. "Gambling was the sport. Father used to take a hand in it sometimes. He was an expert euchre player, and could hold his own at the gaming tables even with the professional gamblers."

Several seasons the band played in St. Louis during the Veiled Prophet fiesta.

"Floor shows" probably are considered quite a modern feature of dance orchestra entertainment, but as long ago as 50 years, the 'Walter Family Band' was doing stunts in concert work. A specialty was their roller skating act, introduced at the height of the roller skating craze. They would take the floor as a band, and play and skate.

"We young folks were pretty good skaters—Emma really quite fancy," Dr. Walter said. "But father never could learn. He wouldn't give up though, and always insisted on skating with us. He never fell, but he was so awkward and funny, the crowd used to roar. They believed he was clowning. A circus company and a New York vaudeville show both made him flattering offers to put our act on in the East, but again, as with the Ringlings, he voted to stay by McGregor, and keep us just together as the 'Walter Family Band.'"

It was after Will had left and become famous and the daughters had married, that nightly rehearsals in the old home ended. The band broke up in 1902.

P. O. Address

Dr. J. A. Walter, Ex Mayor, Dies; Rites Yesterday

1942

Dr. J. A. Walter, ex-mayor of McGregor, well-known musician and dean of Iowa dentists, died early Monday morning, after only a few hours illness. He was taken to the hospital late Sunday night, following a heart attack. He was 81 years old.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 p. m. yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. A. Kean, in McGregor. Services at the house were conducted by the Rev. J. J. Horsfield, pastor of St. Mary's church, and graveside services by the Rev. Dwight E. Webster, pastor of the Methodist church. McGregor stores and business places were closed during the services in respect to the former mayor.

Dr. Walter's parents were born in Germany and came to McGregor in 1857. His father engaged in the furniture and undertaking business here in partnership with his brother, and being a musician, organized and taught the "Walter Family Band", in which Dr. John and his four sisters and brother played. The band was well-known and played for a number of seasons on the Diamond Jo packets on the Mississippi river.

His interest in band work never lagged and he still occasionally played his cornet.

Dr. Walter was born in McGregor on January 9, 1861. After graduating from the town school, he procured a dental apprenticeship with Dr. A. O. Hunt, then practicing in McGregor, and later the distinguished dean of the College of Dentistry of the State University. At that time apprenticeship to another dentist was the only way a young man could gain knowledge of the profession.

Following two years as an apprentice, Dr. Walter in 1881 opened a dental office in McGregor, and continued in active practice here nearly 60 years.

1927 OBITUARY 127

The sad news of the sudden death of Mrs. J. A. Walter came as a shock to relatives and friends last Friday morning.

Odilda Emelia Bergman was born in McGregor, Iowa, September 17, 1865, and passed into eternal rest Friday morning, June 24, 1927. She grew to womanhood in her native town. She was reared in the faith of the Presbyterian church, and was always an active member of its various organizations. When the Presbyterian church disbanded, she affiliated with the First Congregational Church. She belonged to various social and fraternal organizations, and was a prominent member of Pleasant Grove Cemetery Association.

She was married to Dr. John A. Walter, November 18, 1885. To this union were born four daughters, Mrs. Marguerite Nelson, and Mrs. Marie Kean, of McGregor; Mrs. Odilda Lager, New Hampton, Iowa; Mrs. Helen Wenzel, West Allis, Wis., and two sons, Dr. J. Fredric Walter, and William B. Walter, McGregor, Iowa, all of whom are left with the husband, to mourn. She is also survived by three grandchildren, two sisters and three brothers. She was a devoted and loving mother, and a faithful wife. In her daily life, she was ambitious, industrious and conscientious; her greatest joy, was to serve her own family whom she dearly loved. She freely gave her service in church and social work, was ever ready with words of kindness, and the prompting of a generous nature to help the unfortunate and needy, and was gifted with a cheerful disposition and an attractive manner which won her many warm friends who will greatly miss her from their circle.

One of the largest gatherings of relatives and friends from near and far, that McGregor has seen in many years assembled at the home Sunday afternoon, where the funeral services were held at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. Franklin Parsons, of the First Congregational church. The profuse floral offerings, from both at home and abroad betokened the love and esteem in which she was held. Interment was made in Pleasant

His interest in band work never lagged and he still occasionally played his cornet.

An early proponent of organized Dentistry, Dr. Walter was one of the founders of the Northern Iowa Dental society, and in 1902 was president of the Society.

He was elected mayor of McGregor in 1897, and served in that capacity 21 years. He was one of the organizers of the League of Iowa Municipalities in 1898, and was elected president of the organization in 1898. For a number of years afterwards he served on the executive committee.

He was once a member of the Dubuque lodge of Elks, the McGregor lodges of Masons, the I. O. O. F., including the uniformed rank in which he held the rank of major. He was also a member of the Knights of Pythias, M. W. A., W. O. W., Yeoman and M. B. A.

Dr. Walter married Miss Odilda E. Bergman November 18, 1885, in McGregor and four girls and two boys were born to them. Mrs. Walter died 15 years ago. The children are all living. The oldest son, Frederick, following in his father's footsteps, has been a dentist in McGregor since 1919, mayor of the town since 1929, and president of the League of Iowa Municipalities. The other son, William, and one daughter, Mrs. W. A. Kean, live in McGregor. The three other daughters are: Mrs. Carl Nelson, Fort Dodge; Mrs. Vincent Lager, Aurora, Ill., and Mrs. Harry Wenzel, West Allis, Wis. Four sisters of Dr. Walter survive him; Mrs. Emma Benjamin, Cincinnati; Mrs. Mattie Hellberg, Minneapolis; Mrs. Anna Van Duzer, Chicago; and Mrs. Hannah Skemp, Dubuque.

Toledo's north end w[illegible]h a very [illegible]pecial boyfriend. We held [illegible]nds, w[illegible]tched the movie, and in [illegible]etwe[illegible]n reel changes, listened to th[illegible]t piano playing of Joe Moon.

In my teen years I attended Paul Lefever's dance class at the Women's Building on Cherry Street.

Do you remember what wonderful simple things we did when we were young? Nothing cost very much, but always there was a feeling of fun and adventure. There were moonlight rides on the Greyhound, wonderful Walbridge Park at night—the music from the Merry-go-round in the background. We went to dances at Willow Beach and Luna Pier in Michigan.

Come to think of it, almost every weekend our group went dancing. There was the Rustic Lodge, and the Wonderbar in Monroe, Michigan, but our favorite spot to "cut-a-rug" was the Granada Gardens on Monroe Street. The big attraction there was Bob Badir's Band. . .remember? (He still plays a great piano.)

Looking back, I can honestly say, we had good music to dance to, and good friends to share life with. "Who could ask for anything more?" We had it all, didn't we?

Earl's Shoes

In 1958, our four sons were pictured in a Blade advertisement for Earl's Shoes. The photographer came to our house and spent an hour and a half trying to get a picture of our boys. The youngest wouldn't sit still long enough for the photographer to get from the chair back to the camera. The solution was to let him feed his cat while the picture was being taken. It worked.

The finished product ran with this caption: "Mr. and Mrs. Vincent A. Haas had the boys fitted with Earl's Shoes since infancy to assure proper foot development. Toledo's only Earl's 'Crib-to-College' Shoe Store, at 619 Adams Street is the oldest and largest children's store in the city and is the headquarters for Dr. Posner Shoes."

Clyde "K. O." Jeakle, my father, is pictured at his place of business in 1942. It was located on Western Avenue in South Toledo. He was a lightweight boxer and a veteran of 68 fights before losing his eyesight in a match with Alex Hart at Madison Square Garden in 1925. (Mary Lou Voyles, Grand Rapids, Ohio.)

On the day the boys were being fitted for their new shoes, the clerk was putting one shoe on each boy for my wife's approval of style and fit, when Delvin began crying. "What's the matter son, did you hurt yourself?" the clerk asked. Delvin held up two fingers and sobbed, "I wanted two shoes."

Adams Township Mothers

I'm wondering if anyone remembers when the Glann School Mother's Club took over the first graders "spring program?" It was 1948 and we had to step in because so many pupils were home with an epidemic of measles.

Mother's Clubs from the surrounding schools were invited to attend. I was one of the three drummers and we had a great time putting the show together. Accompanying me in the percussion section were, Mary Jane Oaks, and Lorraine O'Brien. Gene Krupa had nothing on us.

Walbridge Park Fire

There was a three-alarm fire at Walbridge Park in 1938. Damages were as much as $70,000. The fire happened in our season of autumn when the leaves are falling and being raked into piles and burned. The Fire Chief, Fred Schlorf, was investigating, among other things, the possibility that the fire was started from leaves burning. The only thing not damaged was the Merry-go-round.

Highland Meadows' Scale

In the men's locker room at Highland Meadows Golf Club (Sylvania) there is a Toledo Person Weighing Scale with a renowned history.

In the 1920s most Person Weighing Scales were of the beam type, which in some instances were accuracy suspect. Others were small spring types, again subject to error and not highly regarded.

The Toledo Scale Company introduced a new product, the Person Weigher. It consisted of a stand-on platform supported by a lever system

In 2004 when I was in charge of our Pitts Family Christmas Party, our family totaled 128. There were 122 in attendance. However, now 6 years later, more are married and more children have been born. I just did a count for this email and it now comes to 163 living family members. Simply amazing!

This is a real tribute to my father, Francis Pitts, and ancestors --- grandfather Harry Pitts, great-grandmother Tillie Walter Pitts, great-great-grandfather Peter Walter, and great-great-great grandfather George Walter.

JEAKLE ENTERS EASTERN ARENAS NEXT OCTOBER

The Messenger sport department has received an interesting letter from Sam Jordan, Toledo's most famous boxing impressario, who is in Dayton with his famous welterweight, Mickey Brennan, who takes on Kid Williams of Florida, at Dayton tonight. Samuel is on the battleground with his entire string and he expects to take his boy down the line with another victory. Sam would like greatly to get Brennan on the Greb-Flowers bill or in one of the American Legion shows in the near future.

Sam says that he has his best bet, Clyde (Kayo) Jeakle, all lined up for entrance into the charmed circle in New York City this winter and he'll also take Red McDonald along. They make their big splurge in October and Mr. Jordan (Sam for short) says that he has both of his boys lined up for some big thunder. Jeakle and McDonald being plodders of the long distance type, should go big in the 15 round battles allowed in N. Y. C. and other points east.

FLOWERS WILL ARRIVE UP HERE ABOUT SUNDAY

Ray Bronson, who with Carl F. Miller is putting over the big Greb-Flowers joust for Aug. 21, was in Toledo on business Monday afternoon and evening and he sees that the big city on the bleak shores of the raging Maumee is all rocked up over the prospects of the big glove encounter and that the demand for the ducats steadily increases day by day.

A huge banner that will be hung street Tuesday morning and that structure will gradually round into shape during the present week.

Tiger Flowers, is was learned Tuesday, will arrive in Toledo next Sunday to taper off his training work in that section of the land. With the Tiger working in Toledo and Greb here to finish hi stabors for the bout next Thursday, the complexion of the championship go will start taking on a very realistic hue and the influx of the ring followers will start gathering about the standard.

Flowers is a hit in Toledo and his presence there will perk up the bout business there above the fever heights that it has already arisen to.

The Greb-Flowers show was greatly advertised at Cleveland last evening when "Hush" Zimmerman had the bout and its features announced from the ringside and thousands of hand bill's were passed about the crowd.

Joe Lohman has been matched to fight Gene Tunney at Columbus, Aug. 18.

Something to worry about: Fixing the arena in ship shape and forgetting all about the ring until ten minutes before the time of the bout.

Ford Can't Quit Race For Senate is Ruling

Lansing, Mich., August 12. — The name of Henry Ford apparently will go on the ballot in Michigan as a candidate for the republican nomination for United States senator in the September primaries, regardless of press dispatches from South Sudbury, Mass., quoting Ford as saying he will not be a candidate.

The attorney general's office recently gave an opinion that Ford could withdraw his name within ten days, but Secretary of State Charles DeLand pointed out that the law says that after the closing of time for filing petitions, the secretary of state shall forthwith "certify the names to the county clerks".

While DeLand says he admits the "common sense" of the attorney general's opinion, he holds that the word "forthwith" in the law does not mean in ten days and clerks in the secretary of state's office began the work of cer...
